INTRODUCTION

The 2018-19 Student Handbook is the official student handbook of Florida Polytechnic University. It is prepared by the Office of Enrollment and Student Development to provide you with information about campus resources, student life and University procedures. The University makes this handbook available to each student, and it is your responsibility to familiarize yourself with its contents. By enrolling at this University, you agree to comply with all University policies, rules and regulations. Ignorance of a policy, rule or regulation will not be considered an excuse for failure to observe it. The University reserves the right to alter rules, regulations and policies referenced herein, for which notice will be given through standard and established channels.

Some important parts of the handbook include the Student Code of Conduct, Academic Integrity Pledge and the Student Rights and Responsibilities. Please review these policies in their entirety. The handbook is only one of many useful sources of information about the University. Students should consult the University Course Catalog, along with their faculty advisors and the Office of Student Development, if they have further questions about any of the topics addressed here. Members of the University community – faculty, administration and staff – are ready to help all students when questions or problems arise. Florida Polytechnic University is committed to providing and maintaining a welcoming and dignified learning environment in which all members of the community appreciate and respect one another. The University does not tolerate any form of discriminatory behavior, which includes harassment or retaliation, directed toward another member of the University community based on his or her race, color, national origin, marital status, sex, religion, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression or veteran status or any other legally protected basis. Any individual who feels he or she has been made a victim of discrimination or harassment, which includes any act of sexual misconduct, is strongly encouraged to report the incident to the University's Title IX coordinator. The Title IX coordinator is available to discuss options for handling the matter and to identify counseling and support for victims, whether or not the victim chooses to make an official report or participate in the institutional disciplinary or criminal process.

The provisions of this handbook are not to be regarded as a contract between any student and the University. The University reserves the right to change any of the policies, rules, regulations and standards of conduct at any time as may be necessary in the interest of the University. The University also reserves the right to modify or discontinue any of the services, programs or activities described in this handbook. The Student Code of Conduct, as published on the University website, reflects the most up-to-date version of the regulation in its entirety.

The University may reproduce or modify this handbook, or parts of it, for distribution in other formats (for example, on a web page or in other forms for computer access, or in school or academic department publications). Students, applicants and other users of this handbook should consult with appropriate University offices to verify the current text or status of the policies, procedures or information contained herein to determine whether information in this handbook or other publications has been superseded or changed. Questions about the Student Handbook should be directed to Scott Rhodes, vice provost of the Office of Enrollment and Student Development at srhodes@floridapoly.edu.

UNIVERSITY HOLIDAYS

RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS

Reasonable Accommodations for Religious Observances, Practices, and Beliefs

The University will reasonably accommodate the religious observances, practices and beliefs of individuals in regard to admissions, class attendance and the scheduling of examinations and work assignments.

When feasible, the University and faculty will seek to avoid scheduling major examinations, major assignments and University ceremonies on major religious holy days. For the purposes of this regulation, a recognized religious holy day is a significant day of religious observance as recognized by the highest governing body of that particular faith.

Students should review course requirements and meeting days and times before a semester begins to avoid foreseeable conflicts with religious observances, as excessive absences in a given term may make it difficult for a student to successfully complete the academic requirements of a course.

A student who wishes to observe a religious holy day of his or her religious faith shall notify all of his or her instructors in advance and shall be excused from classes or other academic or educational activity for the purpose of observing the religious holy day.

Please see FPU-3.009 Reasonable Accommodations for Religious Observances, Practices, and Beliefs to read in its entirety.

The University observes the following holidays:

- New Year's Day
- Birthday of Martin Luther King Jr. (third Monday in January)
- Memorial Day
- Independence Day
- Labor Day
- Veterans Day
- Thanksgiving Day
- Friday after Thanksgiving
- Christmas Day
- Winter Break (the four-week days between December 25 and January 1)

READING DAYS

The two days prior to the start of examinations in the fall and spring semesters, generally a Thursday and Friday, are designated reading days. No classes are held on these days; instead, students are encouraged to use these days for study and review. There are no reading days in the summer terms because examinations are given during regular class periods. Please see the academic calendar for the full list of dates.

Online services are available for viewing account details and making payment. Students may pay online by credit card (American Express, MasterCard, Visa, Discover) through their CAMS Student Portal. Online payments will be subject to the University's convenience fee, which may not exceed 2.3 percent of the payment amount.

Payments by check or credit card may also be made via the desk located in the Bursar's area of the Wellness Center.

For payments by mail: Make the check payable to Florida Polytechnic University. Include your ID number, name, address and phone number on your check.

Mail your payment to:

Florida Polytechnic University
Bursar's Office
Room 1102
4700 Research Way
Lakeland, Florida 33805-8531

Deferred Payment of Tuition and Fees

The Office of Financial Aid automatically issues tuition and fee payment deferments for students who have been awarded and have accepted financial aid where financial aid is delayed due to circumstances beyond the student's control. In situations when an administrative error caused the student to be ineligible for an automatic deferment or when the student experiences a documentable, unexpected financial hardship, a manual deferment may be processed. The President or designee may award a 60-day tuition and fee payment deferment when the student is a recipient of VA benefits or when the student has an acceptable third party that has agreed in writing to pay for the student's tuition and fees.

Waiver of Tuition and Fees

Per University Policy FPU-4.002 Waiver of Tuition and Fees, Florida Polytechnic University will waive tuition and/or certain fees as required by the Board of Governors regulations and Florida Statutes.

Refund of Tuition and Fees

The University authorizes certain refunds of tuition and fees, less deduction for non-refundable fees and unpaid debts to the University. Credit card convenience fees, late registration fees and late payment fees are non-refundable fees.

- (a) One-hundred percent of the applicable tuition and refundable fees will be refunded if the student drops a course or causes his or her enrollment in the University to be terminated by the Office of the Registrar prior to the end of the drop/add period;
- (b) Twenty-five percent of tuition and refundable fees, less Building and Capital Improvement fees, will be refunded if the student drops a course or causes his or her enrollment in the University to be terminated by the Office of the Registrar prior to the end of the fourth week of classes, or at an appropriate time as designated by the University for summer sessions, and submits a completed Refund Request Form.
- (c) One-hundred percent of tuition and refundable fees will be refunded if, within six months of the end of the semester to which the refund is applicable, a student who has withdrawn or dropped a course completes and files with the Office of the Registrar a Fee Adjustment Request Form citing recognized circumstances outside the student's control, and such recognized circumstances are confirmed and the refund is approved by the Registrar. Recognized circumstances that will be considered within this six-month period include:

1. Illness of the student of such severity or duration, as confirmed in writing by a physician, to preclude completion of the course(s).
2. Death of the student or death in the student's immediate family (parent, spouse, child, sibling, or grandparent) that precludes completion of the course(s).
3. Involuntary call to active military duty.
4. A situation in which the University is in error. The amount of a payment in excess of the adjusted assessment will be refunded.

Non-payment of Tuition and Fees

Per University Policy FPU 4.004 Procedure for Payment Waiver and Refund of Tuition Fees Fines and Penalties, failure to timely pay tuition and fees or make acceptable and appropriate arrangements for payment, will result in cancellation of the student's course schedule. A student whose course schedule has been cancelled cannot thereafter attend such courses and will not obtain credit for such courses, until the schedule is reinstated.

A student who makes an effort to pay the tuition and fees, including but not limited to making partial payments by credit card, check, or by use of any type of financial aid or scholarship, grants, waivers, third party contracts,

Florida Bright Futures, and/or Florida Prepaid, by the published tuition payment deadline, will not be cancelled from their courses, and the student will be considered liable for any unpaid tuition or fees.

Students who have not paid, or made acceptable and appropriate arrangements for payment, of their tuition and fees by the tuition payment deadline shall be assessed late payment fee and be precluded from receiving grades, transcripts or diplomas until the tuition and fees have been paid. When registration opens for a given academic term, any outstanding balance in a student's account will prevent the student from being able to register for courses, or from receiving transcripts or diplomas until the student's account has been paid in full.

If a student incurs a tuition and fee liability from the reversal of financial aid or the addition of new charges, after registration has opened for the next semester, the student must pay that liability in full before the start of the upcoming semester. Failure to make payment in full will result in the cancellation of the student's course schedule for the upcoming semester.

Course Reinstatement

A student whose course schedule has been cancelled will be sent written notice of cancellation through university email, to the student's last known email address on record. Such notice will include a deadline by which the student may apply for reinstatement of such course schedule.

Per University Policy FPU-4.004- Procedure for Payment, Waiver and Refund of Tuition, Fees, Fines, and Penalties, a student whose scheduled courses have been cancelled for financial reasons may request reinstatement by the Registrar or designee through the fourth week of classes. Upon approval for reinstatement, tuition and fees; the late registration fee, if applicable; the late payment fee and other debts owed to the University must be paid in full by check, money order, cashier's check or credit card before reinstatement will be affected. After the fourth week of classes, a student can request a late reinstatement from the Office of Financial Aid.

Means of Collection

Per University Policy FPU-7.006 Student Debt Collection, the University may employ any legal means for collecting student debts owed to the University, including but not limited to, any one or more of the following actions: issue collection letters; send notices by electronic mail; attempt to contact the student by telephone; engage a collection agency; suspend a student's academic progress; cancel a student's course schedule; preclude or restrict the issuance of a student's grades or diploma or the release of a student's transcript.

Delinquent accounts sent to a collection agency will incur collection costs that will be added to the outstanding balance due by the student. In addition, the University shall assess a charge representing the reasonable cost of collection efforts to effect payment for overdue student loan accounts.

The Florida Polytechnic University Police Department is located at the Campus Control Center (CCC), 4539 (1) Polytechnic Circle. The Florida Polytechnic University Police Department consists of sworn law enforcement and non-sworn members who provide 24-hour police services to the campus community. The University Police Department is under the command of Chief of Police Richard A. Holland and Deputy Chief John D. Houser. The University Police Department is currently staffed by 13 full-time members providing full university police services to the Florida Polytechnic University campus.

Since the main campus is within the city limits of Lakeland, all 911 emergency calls go directly to the Lakeland Police Department Dispatch Center, which dispatches University Police.

Non-Emergency Police Contact

To contact the Florida Polytechnic University Police Department for non-emergencies call 863-874-8472.

In an emergency, call 911.

There are also 38 blue light phones strategically placed around the campus in the event of an emergency. The blue light phones dial directly into the police department.

Reporting Campus Crime

Contact the police department by dialing 863.874.8472. If you are near a blue emergency phone, simply press the red button, release it and you will automatically be connected to the police department.

The University is concerned about the safety of its students and faculty, and it is also concerned with the security of both personal and University property. When witnessing or discovering a crime, students should first do what is necessary to secure their personal safety and the safety of others, then immediately report the crime to University personnel available on site. University personnel will then assist students in contacting the University Police Department. Students may seek advice or assistance from the police immediately in the event of a crime.

The campus community will receive a bulletin from the University Police for any crime that affects the community at large. The University reserves the right to alter access to campus facilities at any time. The University also reserves the right to bar an individual or group of individuals from campus facilities or property.

Demonstrations

It is the intent of the University to encourage a free discourse of ideas while maintaining the safe and normal operations of campus life and education. To that extent, the FPU-1.007 Demonstrations regulation provides some time, place, and manner parameters on "campus expression" and processes for obtaining permission, when necessary, to hold a demonstration on campus.

Please see FPU-1.007 Demonstrations regulation to read in its entirety.

Trespassing

The University permits public access to public portions of the campus while maintaining its commitment to a safe workplace and learning environment. Police may authorize the issuance of trespass warnings pursuant to Florida law.

The University Police Department is responsible for the implementation and enforcement of this regulation provided such is consistent with this regulation and with Florida Statutes section 1012.97 and Chapter 810. The University Police Department may request identification of individuals on campus, may direct individuals to leave campus, may issue trespass warnings and/or may arrest individuals for trespass.

Please see FPU-1.006 Trespass regulation to read in its entirety.

Political Activity on Campus

A group or individual (including University employees) wishing to hold a political activity on campus will be considered as holding an "Unaffiliated Activity" and the group or individual must complete a SAFE form, receive written approval in advance of the activity and comply with University rules, regulations, policies, and procedures.

Please see FPU-1.011 Political Activity on Campus regulation to read in its entirety.

Alligators and Snakes

Alligators can be found in virtually every body of water on campus, and are normally shy creatures. But when fed by people, they lose that fear and associate people with food. An alligator that has lost the fear of people can be extremely dangerous, and can approach you looking for food. There are numerous cases in Florida where alligators have attacked people or pets because they have lost the fear of people.

Be aware of the possibility of alligator attacks when in or near fresh or brackish water bodies. Attacks may occur when people do not pay close enough attention to their surroundings while working or recreating near water.

- Do not swim in any of the ponds or lakes on or near the campus as the waters might be inhabited by alligators.
- Alligators are most active between dusk and dawn.
- Leave alligators alone. State law prohibits killing, harassing or possessing alligators.
- Never feed or entice alligators – it's dangerous and illegal. When fed, alligators overcome their natural wariness and learn to associate people with food.

Report nuisance alligators to Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission (FWCC) by calling 1-866-FWC- GATOR (866-392-4286). Of the many species of native snakes in Florida, not all are venomous. Still, we strongly suggest that you give all snakes plenty of room.
